

NORTHWEST INDIANA REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Ed Glover
East Chicago Appointment

Working Groups Served:
Lakeshore Redevelopment

Ed Glover is a certified Housing Development Finance and Construction Professional with over 30 years experience and is former Executive Director of Community Reinvestment Project of East Chicago, Inc., a nonprofit dedicated to the development of affordable housing and community economic development in Northwest Indiana. He is former Chairman of the Gary East Chicago Hammond Empowerment Zone; past President of the Indiana Association for Community Economic Development; Vice President of the Indiana Redevelopment Corporation; former Chairman of the Finance/Investment Committee for St. Catherine Hospital Foundation and a seven-year Conference Committee member for Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority. Glover is a former member of several Advisory Councils, including Northern Indiana Public Service Company and the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis. He is also a member of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials.

About the Northwest Indiana Regional Development Authority

Established in 2005 through a bipartisan effort including former Governor Mitchell E. Daniels, Congressman Peter J. Visclosky, key state legislators, and local elected officials, the RDA is quasi-governmental development entity entrusted to make public investment decisions within a regional framework for supporting catalytic infrastructure projects and inducing private sector investment. Years of successful results have made it a trusted and tested partner for growth in Northwest Indiana. For more information, visit www.rdatransformation.com or www.in.gov/rda